

The Good Life - October Leaves

Tom: E
 Intro: E Dbm A E
 E Dbm A E

E Dbm A
 I stumbled in at 3 a.m.
 E
 But you didn't want to
 E Dbm A
 I tried again at half past ten
 E
 You still don't want to
 A Am
 Your hips have this way of saying no way
 Dbm B A
 An impenetrable barricade

E Ab
 Something I said? Something I did?
 Dbm B A
 What's made you so defensive?
 E Ab
 Something you heard? Something you learned?
 Dbm B A
 The season's changing, it's for the worse
 (E Dbm A E)

E Dbm A
 You used to call me on your break
 E
 But you've been so busy
 E Dbm A
 You used to bring me tomato soup
 E
 But you keep forgetting
 A Am
 As the groundskeeper rakes up the October leaves
 Dbm B A
 It occurs to me, trees can't hide anything

E Ab
 Something I said? Something I did?
 Dbm B A
 You've been acting so distant
 E Ab
 Something you heard? Something you learned?
 Dbm B A
 The trees are barren, the leaves have turned
 Dbm Ab A
 The days when we made it the world was green
 Dbm Ab B A
 Now autumn has fallen, everything's changed

E Dbm A
 October leaves
 E
 October leaves
 E Dbm A
 October leaves
 E
 October leaves

Dbm Ab A
 I woke up this morning, you were off to work
 Dbm Ab B A
 No kisses, no coffee, no morning paper
 (A)

"Hey"
 "Yes?"
 "Are you sleeping?"
 "No"
 "Can I ask you something?"
 "Yes"
 "Are you cheating on me?"
 "No"
 "Are you lying?"
