

The Good Life - October Leaves

```
Intro: E Dbm A E
       E Dbm A E
    Dbm
I stumbled in at 3 a.m.
But you didn?t want to
E Dbm A
I tried again at half past ten
You still don?t want to
Your hips have this way of saying no way
Dbm B A
An impenetrable barricade
Something I said? Something I did?
Dbm B A
What?s made you so defensive?
     E Ab
Something you heard? Something you learned?
Dbm B A
The season?s changing, it?s for the worse
(E Dbm A E)
        Dbm
You used to call me on your break
But you?ve been so busy
    Dbm A
You used to bring me tomato soup
         E
But you keep forgetting
                       Am
As the groundskeeper rakes up the October leaves
Dbm B A
It occurs to me, trees can?t hide anything
```
