

The Heavy Horses - Anyone Can Tell

tom:

Intro: Bm G

Bm
I've been riding hard for three days G

And I can't turn back now Bm

Bm G
They sentenced me to hang

G Bm
But I slipped away somehow

G
Hell, I'm the best there is

And that's all you need to know Bm

A D
'Cause I've got outlaw blood

And a restless weary soul

Bm G
And I'm trying to cross the border

Before the sun sets down tonight Bm

Bm G
If I keep on riding hard

G Bm
I'll be a free man come daylight

G
Hell, I'm the best there is

And that's what I hear them say Bm

A D
But I guess I always knew

A Bm
That I'd pay my debt someday

G
They found me in a little town

Bm
Just outside of Mexico

Bm
For a handful of pesos

G
And anyone can tell you

Bm
My guns they were not drawn

And left to die at dawn

(Bm G Bm)
(A D A Bm)

Bm G
I've been gone 100 years now

Bm
But it seems like yesterday

Bm G
That the lawman shot me in the dark

G Bm
And stole my life away

G
Hell, I'm the best that ever lived

Bm
I'm a legend among men

A D
Now every time that pistol fires

A Bm
A legend rides again

G
They found me in a little town

Bm
Just outside of Mexico

G
What happened there that night

Bm
No one will ever know

G
But anyone can tell you

Bm
That I was unarmed

A
And anyone can tell you

G Bm
That I left that night unharmed

(Bm G Bm)
(A D Bm)
