

The Heavy Horses - Anyone Can Tell

tom:

Intro: Bm G

Bm
I've been riding hard for three days G

And I can't turn back now Bm

Bm They sentenced me to hang G

G But I slipped away somehow Bm

G
Hell, I'm the best there is

And that's all you need to know Bm

A 'Cause I've got outlaw blood D

A And a restless weary soul

Bm
And I'm trying to cross the border G

Before the sun sets down tonight Bm

Bm If I keep on riding hard G

G I'll be a free man come daylight Bm

G
Hell, I'm the best there is

And that's what I hear them say Bm

A But I guess I always knew D

A That I'd pay my debt someday Bm

G They found me in a little town

Bm Just outside of Mexico

Bm
For a handful of pesos

G
And anyone can tell you
My guns they were not drawn Bm

And left to die at dawn Bm

( Bm G Bm )
( A D A Bm )

Bm
I've been gone 100 years now G

But it seems like yesterday Bm

That the lawman shot me in the dark G

And stole my life away Bm

G
Hell, I'm the best that ever lived

I'm a legend among men Bm

A Now every time that pistol fires D

A A legend rides again Bm

G They found me in a little town

Just outside of Mexico Bm

G What happened there that night

No one will ever know Bm

G
But anyone can tell you

That I was unarmed Bm

A And anyone can tell you

G That I left that night unharmed Bm

( Bm G Bm )
( A D Bm )
