

The Heavy Horses - Pale Rider

Tom: E
Intro: Dbm A Dbm

Dbm B Dbm
Ride to town, shoot them up and keep on going

B Dbm
Cause I got a job to do and I don't stop for no one

E B Dbm
So get your gun, and kiss your wife, and lock up your daughter

B Dbm
Don't let her fall in love with the pale rider

(B Dbm)

B Dbm
Many men 've quickly found I'm unforgiving

B Dbm
They say dying ain't no way to make a living

E B Dbm
So get your gun and bet your life, if you're a gambler

B Dbm B
You draw a dead man's hand against the pale rider

Dbm B
And I walked down into Mexico

Dbm
What I came for I think you know

B Dbm
I take another life, it's all the same

A B Dbm
It's one more killing to the man that has no name

(Dbm B Dbm B Dbm B Dbm A B Ab Dbm)

B Dbm
So ride to town, shoot em up and keep on going

B Dbm
Cause I got a job to do and I'll be gone come morning

E B Dbm
Get your gun, and kiss your wife and hug your daughter

B Dbm
Tell her you're off to meet the pale rider

B Dbm B
Don't let her fall in love with the pale rider

Dbm B
And I walked down into Mexico

Dbm
What I came for I think you know

B Dbm
I take another life, it's all the same

A B Dbm
It's one more killing to the man that has no name

A B Dbm
It's one more bullet to the man that has no name

(A B Ab Dbm)

Acordes

