We met in a bar
 Out on Chesapeake Bay
 With her white patent boots
 And her blouse red lame
 A table top dancer
 She would smile on cue
 Those lips of an angel
 Angel in blue
 She's been dancing for ages
 Though cities of bars
 She was kickin' the habit of scoring in cars
 She'd been drained of her spirit
 All caged in this zoo
 A wildcat angel
 Angel in blue
 Dbm B

And as she stared out into nowhere
 Dbm I thought, yes, I thought she might break down and cry B
 When I whispered I thought I could love her
 Abm A
 She just said "Baby, don't even bother to try"
 E B
 And I watched as she spoke
 E B
 Her words chilled my bones
 Dbm
 All her friends did her favors
 A
 That were really just loans
 E
 And she never had dreams
 B
 So they never came true
 Dbm A
 The palest of angels
 E
 Angel in blue
 E
 And the bees they had stung her
 B
 The birds they had flown
 Dbm
 There were guys she could number
 A
 But none she had known
 E
 And she never had dreams
 B
 So they never came true
 Dbm A
 My fade away angel
