

The Killers - Just Another Girl

She's just another girl
                            tom:
                                                                 Don't let her stick it to your heart so hard
            [Primeira Parte]
                                                                 And all my friends say it wasn't meant to be
                                                                 And it's a great big world
 Step out into the Indian dust
                                                                 She's just another girl
 I can feel the cracks in my spirit
                                                                [Ponte]
 They're starting to bust
                                                                 I could be reeling them in left and right
 Drive by your house
 Nobody's home
                                                                 Something's got a hold on me, tonight
                                                                 Well maybe all of my friends should confront
 I'm trying to tell myself that I'm better off alone
                                                                 The fact that I don't want another girl
[Refrão]
                                                                ( C G Em )
 All my friends say I should move on
She's just another girl
                                                                 All of my friends say I should move on
 Don't let her stick it to your heart so hard
                                                                 All of my friends say
 And all my friends say it wasn't meant to be
                                                                 All of my friends say
 And it's a great big world
                                                                 All of my friends say
 She's just another girl
                                                                 She's just another girl
   (Another girl)
                                                                 Then why can't I sleep at night
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                 And why don't the moon look right
I went to see a fortuneteller, that was a trip
                                                                The sound's off but the TV's on
Maybe this confusion's got me losing my grip
                                                                 And it's a great big world
I can't believe you're out there flying with somebody else uh-
                                                                She's just another girl
Now Jason's getting married in the blink of an eye
                                                                Don't let her stick it to your heart boys
I got an invitation but I didn't reply
                                                                      (Em )
                                                                She's just another girl
Tell your little brother that we put down the gloves
                                                                                         Em
                                                                All my friends say she's just another girl
And give him all of my love
                                                                Another girl
[Refrão]
                                                                [Final] F G C
All my friends say I should move on
