Let me wrap myself around you
 Let you show me how I see
 And when you come back in from nowhere
 Do you ever think of me?
 Your heart is not able
 Let me show you how much I care
 I need those eyes to tide me over
 I'll take your picture when I go
 Gives me strength and gives me patience
 But I'll never let you know
 I got nothing on you baby
 But I always said I'd try

Let me show you how much I care
 But sometimes it gets hard and don't you know
 Don't give the ghost up, just clench your fist
 You should have known by now you were on my list
 Don't give the ghost up, just clench your fist
 You should have known by now you were on my list
 Don't give the ghost up, just clench your fist
 You should have known by now you were wrong
 When your heart is not able
 And your prayers they're not fables
 Let me show you (let me show you)
 Let me show you (let me show you)
 let me show you how much I care
