

The Killers - Under The Gun

Tom: D

Main Riff played through the verse, let notes ring through halo and wings..

angel for sure

it's too late..

angel's kiss was a joke..

sends and heaven takes..

cars in his brain..

tied up to a dream..

she can set him free..

Kill me now..

criminal mind..

life is under the gun..

he just wants to wake up..

she's an angel for sure..

sends and heaven takes..

cars in his brain..

tied up to a dream..

she can set him free..

Kill me now..

The single notes below are used with a harmonic effect

Stupid on the streets of London

James Dean in the rain

Without her
It's not the same

The same, the same

But it's alright

Because heaven sends..

cars in his brain..

tied up to a dream..

she can set him free..

and then he says to me..

Kill me now..

Again and again..
