

The Killers - Why Don't You Find Out For Yourself

Tom: G

INTRO: E - C - A
E - C - A - C

G D
The sanest days are mad.

Am
Why don't you find out for yourself?
C

Then you'll see the price, very closely.

BREAK

E - C - A
E - C - A - C

Bm E C
Some men here,

G Bm E
they have a special interest in your career.

C D
They wanna help you to grow,

G D
and then syphon all your dough.

Am
Why don't you find out for yourself?
C

G
Then you see the glass, hidden in the grass.

D
You'll never believe me, so

Am
why don't you find out for yourself?
C

Sick down to my heart,
well that's just the way it goes.

BREAK

E - C - A
E - C - A - C

Bm E C
Some men here,

G Bm E
they know the full extent of your distress.

C D G
They kneel and pray and they say:

D
Long may it last.

Am
Why don't you find out for yourself?
C

G
Then you'll see the glass, hidden in the grass.

D
Bad scenes come and go,

Am
for which you must allow.

C
Sick down to my heart,
well that's just the way it goes.

BREAK

E - A - C - D

G D
Don't rake up my mistakes.

Am
I know exactly what they are.

C
And what do you do?

G
Well, you just sit there.

D

I've been stabbed in the back

Am
so many, many times.

C
I don't have any skin,
but that's just the way it goes.
