

The Kinks - Mindless Child Of Motherhood

```
Tom: C
                                                   Mindless child of motherhood
                                                            E7 Am
 (Am C G E E7 Am F)
                                                   You have lost the thing that's good
                                                            C G
                  C G E E7 Am
                                                   Mindless child of motherhood
E E7 Am
                                                   You have lost the thing that's good
In dreams I have seen you but you are so very far
                                                    ( F C F C )
( F C F C F G Am F E )
             F C E E7
How long must I travel on, to be just a-where you are?
                                                                  G
                                                                       E E7
                                                                                Am
                                                   I know that it's unfair to bear a bastard son Am C G E E7
             F C E E7
                            Am
How long must I travel on, to be just a-where you are?
F CFC
                                                   But why do you hide babe when we could have shared a love?
I was your friend, I was a fool
F F Am
                                                   ( F C F C )
( F C F C F G Am F E )
I feel for you though we're far apart
 C F C
I see your face, lost without trace
                                                   Riff 1:
F F Am
I see your mind, drift in empty space
                                                   Riff 2:
                                                                  Riff 3:
```

Acordes

