

The Kinks - Only a Dream

Tom: D

D D D
 Standing by the elevator feeling gloomy and down
 D D
 Waiting for the flashing light to lift me off from the ground
 D D D
 Then the elevator opened and I saw her standing there

G G
 She had to be a young executive she looked so corporate and clean

D D
 And swear I'd seen her somewhere before

D D
 On the cover of a magazine

A
 I didn't think she'd even look at me

G
 Or bother to glance my way

D7
 But she actually smiled at me and said

"Hiya handsome, have a good day"

CHORUS:

D D D D
 I must be dreaming if she looks at me

D D D
 I gotta be dreaming is it a fantasy

D
 Now I got positive emotion buzzing round every molecule in me

D D D D
 I gotta be dreaming is it reality

A G
 But over and over I'll relive that memory

D7
 Was it real or only a dream

D D
 Na na na na na na na

C G D
 Was it my imagination playing tricks on me when she looked my way?

C G
 Maybe she took me for somebody else

C G A
 Maybe she took me for somebody else

Whatever it was, it made my day

D D D
 I wake up in the morning, smiling with anticipation

D D D
 Suddenly I feel alive, I face the world with expectation

G
 I must be dreaming, is this a smile upon my face?

D D
 I gotta be dreaming, the world is a better place

A G
 Was it my imagination playing tricks on me?

D7
 Was it real or only a dream?

C G D
 I see a great big sunset where only clouds used to be

C G
 Was it only an illusion

A G A G
 If its fantasy, if its just a dream it's good enough for me

A
 If its fantasy, if its just a dream it's good enough for me

D D D
 Waiting by the elevator feeling optimistic and clean

D D D
 Waiting for my executive goddess to appear as if in a dream

D D D
 Then the elevator opened, she was talking to another guy

D D D
 And I tried to say hello to her, but I failed to even catch her eye,

A G
 Then everybody crowded inside and I sadly stood my ground, thinking

D7
 Life's just like that elevator, it takes you up and brings you down

D D
 I must be dreaming. . .
