

The Last Shadow Puppets - Calm Like You

Tom: A

(verse)

Bm Gbm
I can still remember when your
Bm Gbm
city smelt exciting
Bm A
I still get a whiff

Db
Of that aroma now and then

Bm Gbm
Burglary and fireworks

Bm Gbm
The skies they were alighting

Bm A
Accidents and toffee drops

Db
And thinking on the train

(chorus)

Bm Gbm
Oh, he was young, in the frost

Dbm Gbm
No regard for the cost

Bm
Of saying his feelings

A Dbm Gbm
In the moment they were felt

Bm Gbm
And if he was calm like you

Db Gbm
Locked up inside of your loops

D
Then he'd know for well

Dm
That all he had to say was

Gbm
All he had to say was goodbye

(solo)

(verse)

Summertime made promises
It knew it couldn't keep
The fairytale was climbing up
A mountain far too steep
Colouring the pictures
With your loyal hand
Now I am craving heartbreak
While you're making your demands

(chorus)

Bm Gbm
Oh, he was young, in the frost

Dbm Gbm
No regard for the cost

Bm
Of saying his feelings

A Dbm Gbm
In the moment they were felt

Bm Gbm
And if he was calm like you

Db Gbm
Locked up inside of your loops

Then he'd know for well

Dm
That all he had to say was

Gbm
All he had to say was goodbye

D A
And if he was calm like you

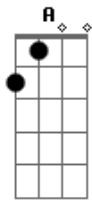

Dbm Gbm
Locked up inside of your loops

Then he'd know for well

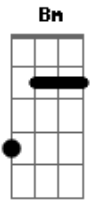

Dm
That all he had to say was

Gbm
All he had to say was goodbye
