There she was

Graciously making forever less terrifying

Em
And you've got the nerve to intervene

C
with a coloring book and a byro and a point to prove

Em
And now you want a word and the gas danced on the edge of your bottom lip

C Bm Em
Quick to scurry back behind the night

C F Em
To avoid the silent fight and the struggle

Em

C
Panicking because someone else kissed me in a dream

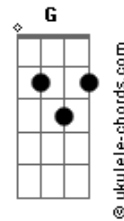

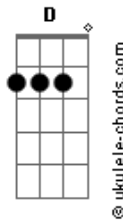

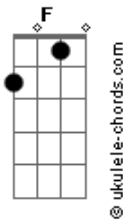

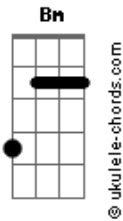

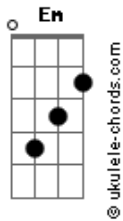

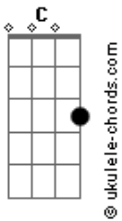

Em
and it was on the cheek

And you stamp your feet

and I'm moving from bored to appalled by these poignant fumes

Em
that you must inflict

Em
Took a solid breath
To a little rip

I've got to carry your broach to cover that hideous stitch

Em
All that grim repair
and we're all upset
See the fear in your cheeks

C
and I still smell the lies on your breath

Em
And your jokes don't bounce

C Em
and you've entered the early stages of bitterness
