

The Last Shadow Puppets - Separate And Ever Deadly

Tom: D

[Verso]

When we walked the streets together
 All the faces seemed to smile back,
 And now the pavements have nothing to offer
 And all the faces seem to need a slap

There's an unfamiliar grip
 on an unfamiliar handkerchief
 Attending to the tears on cheeks
 I wouldn't notice
 With you no matter how vicious the grief
 Her expression was damp and crooked
 Grabs onto my throat and won't let go

[Refrão]

Won't let go
 Won't let go
 Won't let go
 Won't let go

Save me from
 The scateurs
 I'll pretend
 I didn't hear
 Can't you see
 I'm the ghost in the wrong coat
 Biting butter and crumbs

[Verso]

There's a handsome maverick
 You don't talk about to keep me calm

And I can't help it if I create a version
 That pulls you back onto his arm

Please don't tell me
 You don't have to darling, I can sense
 That he painted you a gushing sunset
 And slayed angry panthers in your defence.
 And he stands separate and ever deadly
 Clings onto my throat and won't let go

[Refrão]

Won't let go
 Won't let go
 Won't let go
 Won't let go

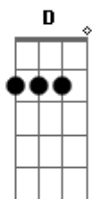

Save me from
 The scateurs
 I'll pretend
 I didn't hear
 Can't you see
 I'm a ghost in the wrong coat
 Biting butter and crumbs

[Solo]

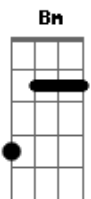

Save me from
 The scateurs
 I'll pretend
 I didn't hear
 Can't you see
 I'm the ghost in the wrong coat
 Biting butter and crumbs
