

The Last Shadow Puppets - She Does The Woods

Tom: C

Em C Em C Em C Em C Em
 Lazy afternoon strolls make for her howls at the trees
 Em C Em C Am
 Going home with trouble written in dirt on her knees
 D
 There's nowhere else to be
 Em C Em
 Off into the long grass
 C Em C Em C
 I want her to drag me away
 Em C Em C Am
 Every single footpath that I ever try and take
 She'll circumnavigate

C G
 They pass us by and we're just out of view
 Am
 Yeah, they don't have a clue
 Fm
 They're in ones they're in twos
 F
 They're in sensible shoes
 Fm
 They're in purple cagoules
 Am Fm
 She'll jump in the river
 Am Fm
 You'll wish you're the water
 Dm Bbm
 And like no one else could
 Abm
 She does the woods

Em C (x4)

Em C Em C
 Faces made for daylight
 C Em C Em C
 Ought to be out of the house
 Em C Em
 You'd do the moon and back twice easy
 C Am
 Just to kiss half of her mouth
 She's what it's all about

C G
 They pass us by and we're just out of view
 Am
 Yeah, they don't have a clue
 Fm
 They're in ones they're in twos
 F
 They're in sensible shoes
 Fm

 Am Fm
 She'll jump in the river
 Am Fm
 You'll wish you're the water
 Dm Bbm
 And like no one else could
 Abm
 She does the woods

Em C (x4)

Em C Em C Em C Em C
 She turns my back to the earth and shows me that's where I'm meant to be
 Em C Em C Em C Em C
 I hear the chirps from the birds as if they heard somebody coming
 Em C Em C Em C
 I see her lit from behind looking down on me
 Em C Em C Em C
 In front of a natural tapestry that's like a
 Spirograph of branches that dance on the breeze
