

The Lumineers - Classy Girl

Tom: C

(com acordes na forma de Capostrate na 3ª casa A )

Intro: and verse are just that repeated.

Welllll, she was standing in the bar
 I said, "Hello, how do you do?"
 She handed me a beer with a kangaroo

She spoke of places I had never been
 That she had traveled to
 And we slowed danced along to faster tunes

I made her laugh, I made a pass, I showed her my half dollar ring

She said, "That's pretty cool,
 But classy girls don't kiss in bars, you fool"

Interlude(Picking ends here and strumming starts):

A A D D E D A

So later on the crowd calmed down
 And I believe it was as if Something drew me closer to her lips

So picture my surprise when I had tried to lean in for a kiss
 And she just smiled and turned her head down

I asked her, "Why?" and she replied,
 "It was nothing I was doing wrong, its just what it is"
 No, classy girls don't kiss in bars like this

No, classy girls don't kiss in bars
 Boys will break their backs and hearts
 But its alright, the hardest part is through

Oh it's through

Oh it's through

Oh it's through

The hardest part is through.

Thanks
