

The Lumineers - Left For Denver

Tom: F

[Primeira Parte]

F
 What time was it
 Bb
 When you were only 18 years old?
 F
 You crossed the street, you crossed your legs
 F Bb
 You came across a little cold
 C Bb
 And it was all, it was all
 F Bb F Bb A G F
 Falling apart (falling apart)

[Segunda Parte]

F
 What time, what time was it
 Bb F Bb
 When you were in the eighth grade
 F Bb
 You brought the box up to the high school
 F Bb
 You spiked the Gatorade
 C G
 And it was all for, for a weekend
 C
 And it was all, all still falling apart

[Refrão]

F Bb A
 I didn't say you'd be better off if you quit

F Bb A
 Everyone left as you held on longer than the rest
 F Bb A
 What made you leave? And when you did you left for Denver
 G C F Bb
 Why? What did you know that I did not?
 F Bb A G F
 That I did not?

[Terceira Parte]

F Bb
 Oh is it one, or is it two
 C F Bb
 Or is it three kids now?
 F Bb
 They mark the time, they draw the lines
 C F Bb
 Around your eyelids now
 C G
 And is it all still, for the weekend?
 C
 Is it all, all still falling apart?

[Refrão]

F Bb A
 I didn't say you'd be better off if you quit
 F Bb A
 Everyone left as you held on longer than the rest
 F Bb A
 What made you leave? And when you did you left for Denver
 G C F Bb
 Why? What did you know that I did not?
 F Bb A G F
 That I did not?
