

The Lumineers - Left For Denver

Tom: F

[Primeira Parte]

F
What time was it
Bb
When you were only 18 years old?
F
You crossed the street, you crossed your legs
F Bb
You came across a little cold
C Bb
And it was all, it was all
F Bb F Bb A G F
Falling apart (falling apart)

[Segunda Parte]

F
What time, what time was it
Bb F Bb
When you were in the eighth grade
F Bb
You brought the box up to the high school
F Bb
You spiked the Gatorade
C G
And it was all for, for a weekend
C
And it was all, all still falling apart

[Refrão]

F Bb A
I didn't say you'd be better off if you quit

F Bb A
Everyone left as you held on longer than the rest
F Bb A
What made you leave? And when you did you left for Denver
G C F Bb
Why? What did you know that I did not?
F Bb A G F
That I did not?

[Terceira Parte]

F Bb
Oh is it one, or is it two
C F Bb
Or is it three kids now?
F Bb
They mark the time, they draw the lines
C F Bb
Around your eyelids now
C G
And is it all still, for the weekend?
C
Is it all, all still falling apart?

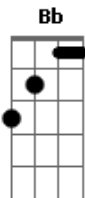

[Refrão]

F Bb A
I didn't say you'd be better off if you quit
F Bb A
Everyone left as you held on longer than the rest
F Bb A
What made you leave? And when you did you left for Denver
G C F Bb
Why? What did you know that I did not?
F Bb A G F
That I did not?
