The Maine - Kennedy Curse

Tom: G Chorus: Intro: G D Will someone just come and take my heart G D C Set it down in front of moving cars Verse 1: Em Am D I feel nothing at all Oh this feels like the Kennedy Curse G Em And everything inside is dead Em G Em I'm on the fence about what feels worse And tear it apart G Em The one leaving or the one in bed Verse 4: Verse 2: G Fm Oh my thoughts they remain perverse G Em In a dream she's talking dirty to me G And I know I am the first of my kin G Em Just in a language that I can't speak G To be born with this curse G Then she kisses my scars Em Em So persuade and coerce As she cuts out my heart G Em Because I'm willing to be born again G Em And places it right on her sleeve Chorus: Verse 3: G G D Em C I'm having visions of the way it will end Will someone just come and take my heart G Em G D C Set it down in front of moving cars I can see it all now in my head G I feel nothing at all G D You will cast the first stone Em My sail will be torn Em G Fm I'll lose my vessel to a dark sea bed And tear it apart

ukulele-chords.com

Acordes

G D C So won't someone just come and take my heart So won't someone just come and take my heart