

The Maine - Perfectly Out Of Key

Tom: C

Intro: C ? Am ? Em ? Am - G (x2)

^C Thoughts ^{Am} fall company and dreams as friends

I'm only half here

And other half pretends

That I'm just

I'm just a bad haircut

Some fashion from last week

No one really knows me at all

But sometimes I like

Living in my own world

Disconnected and so naive

(pause)
Perfectly out of key

C Am Em Am G

^C I?m not allowed to be anyone else but me ^{Am}

So I try to take apart my head from time to time ^G

And I?m not resolute

So will I need help or I would ask you

And I?d try to be polite

And sometimes I like living in my own world

Disconnected and so naive

I?m perfectly out of key

And sometimes I like living in my own world ^{Am}

Disconnected and so naive

But the truth is I

I hate the truth

And I would rather live and die in fantasy ^G
