

The Maine - Right Girl

Tom: D
Intro:

G D
Got caught running up a tab
A D
Couldn't drive home so I had to share a cab
G D
Intro: duced herself by her last name
A D
The kind of girl you steal from the football team
G D
Brought up a silver spoon mess
A D
Always trying to tear off her Catholic dress
G D
Told me she's over this place
A D
Needs to feel the mid west wind in her face
Bm G
But the alcohol made its way down
A
She was the last thing that I saw last night before I hit the ground

Oh god I did the wrong thing to the right girl
A Bm
My mind was only in it for a minute
G D
Had a bad fling with a good girl
A Bm
I was stupid and dumb not giving a
G D
The blank stare out the window
A Bm
If I could just sober up I could just admit
G D
I did the wrong thing to the right girl
A G D
It was your world, baby and I just lived in it
A Bm
It was your world, baby and I just lived in it
G D
I've never been the best with my mouth
A D
Try to stay smart but the dumb comes out
G D
Maybe I'm shy, I drive an old car
A D
Maybe I'm amazed that I got this far
Bm G
And I got my stand-bys waiting on the line
A
But the hardest part is knowing that it won't be her this time
(Pause)
G D
Oh god I did the wrong thing to the right girl

A Bm
My mind was only in it for a minute
G D
Had a bad fling with a good girl
A Bm
I was stupid and dumb not giving a
G D
The blank stare out the window
A Bm
If I could just sober up I could just admit
G D
I did the wrong thing to the right girl
A G D
It was your world, baby and I just lived in it
A Bm
It was your world, baby and I just lived in it
G D
Please, please, baby come back
A D
Please, please, baby come back
G D
Please, please, baby come back
A D
Please, please, baby come back
G
She came back
D
Thought she had it all planned out
A D
Went to marry some guy she had talked about
G D
A tear in her dress and a tear in her eye
A D
And just like that her whole life flashed by
Bm G
She said She won't remember what you said last night
A
That if you ever need someone to pick up the pieces in your life
(Pause)
G D
Oh god I did the wrong thing to the right girl
A Bm
My mind was only in it for a minute
G D
Had a bad fling with a good girl
A Bm
I was stupid and dumb not giving a
G D
The blank stare out the window
A Bm
If I could just sober up I could just admit
G D
I did the wrong thing to the right girl
A G D
It was your world, baby and I just lived in it
A Bm
It was your world, baby and I just lived in it
(G A D Bm)
Oh, it was your world
Yeah it was your world baby and I just lived in it

Acordes

