

The Maine - Right Girl

Tom: D My mind was only in it for a minute Intro: Had a bad fling with a good girl I was stupid and dumb not giving a The blank stare out the window Got caught running up a tab If I could just sober up I could just admit Couldn't drive home so I had to share a cab I did the wrong thing to the right girl Intro: duced herself by her last name It was your world, baby and I just lived in it The kind of girl you steal from the football team It was your world, baby and I just lived in it Brought up a silver spoon mess Please, please, baby come back Always trying to tear off her Catholic dress Please, please, baby come back Told me she's over this place Please, please, baby come back Needs to feel the mid west wind in her face Please, please, baby come back But the alcohol made its way down She was the last thing that I saw last night before I hit the She came back Thought she had it all planned out Went to marry some guy she had talked about Oh god I did the wrong thing to the right girl My mind was only in it for a minute A tear in her dress and a tear in her eye Had a bad fling with a good girl And just like that her whole life flashed by I was stupid and dumb not giving a She said She won't remember what you said last night The blank stare out the window That if you ever need someone to pick up the pieces in your If I could just sober up I could just admit (Pause) I did the wrong thing to the right girl Oh god I did the wrong thing to the right girl It was your world, baby and I just lived in it My mind was only in it for a minute It was your world, baby and I just lived in it Had a bad fling with a good girl I was stupid and dumb not giving a I've never been the best with my mouth The blank stare out the window Try to stay smart but the dumb comes out If I could just sober up I could just admit Maybe I'm shy, I drive an old car I did the wrong thing to the right girl Maybe I'm amazed that I got this far It was your world, baby and I just lived in it And I got my stand-bys waiting on the line It was your world, baby and I just lived in it But the hardest part is knowing that it won't be her this time (GADBm) Oh, it was your world Oh god I did the wrong thing to the right girl Yeah it was your world baby and I just lived in it Acordes
