

The National - New Order T-Shirt

tom:

Intro: F Am C G

[Primeira Parte]

F Am
How you tapped on a box of blue american spirits
C G
At anyway cafe a little under a month
F Am C
Before the ashes and management capital files filled the streets
F Am
How we wove through the cones walking home
C G
To the place on atlantic you shared with your hilarious sister
F Am C
Kicking off your black flats, demolished and laughing

(G)

[Refrão]

C F
I keep what i can of you
G C
Split-second glimpses and snapshots and sounds
F
You in my new order t-shirt
G C
Holding a cat and a glass of beer

[Segunda Parte]

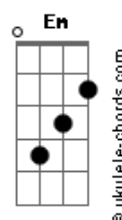

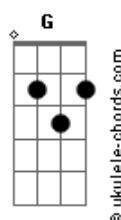

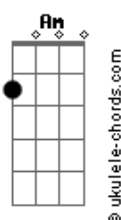

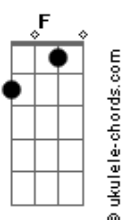

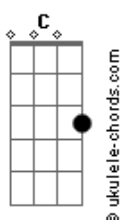

F Am C
When you rescued me from the customs cops in hawaii
G F
When i shut down the place with my japanese novelty bomb
Am C G
And your dad came along
F Am
How you had me lay down for a temperature check
C G
With the cool of your hand on the back of my neck
F Am C
When i said, "i think i'm finally going crazy for real"

[Refrão]

C F
I keep what i can of you
G C
Split-second glimpses and snapshots and sounds
F
You in my new order t-shirt
G
Holding a cat and a glass of beer
C F
I flicker through
G
I carry them with me like drugs in a pocket
C F
You in a kentucky aquarium
G
Talking to a shark in a corner

[Ponte]

Acordes

Am Em
You in a bath on the phone
F G Am
Telling somebody that maybe they're better off leaving
Em F
Than staying in it alone
G
Am Em
You in a bath on the phone
F G Am
Telling somebody that maybe they're better off leaving
Em F
Than staying in it alone

(G)

[Terceira Parte]

F Am
When you cried at the beach and recovered in seconds
C G
And said everything's fine, but i knew that it wasn't
F Am C
Then you stayed out of reach of me for almost a year

(G)

F Am
How you looked like a poster of a '70s movie
C G F
Standing outside at the base of your magazine skyscraper
Am C G
Waiting for me to go drinking downtown

[Refrão]

C F
I keep what i can of you
G C
Split-second glimpses and snapshots and sounds
F
You in my new order t-shirt
G
Holding a cat and a glass of beer
C F
I flicker through
G
I carry them with me like drugs in a pocket
C F
You in a kentucky aquarium
G
Talking to a shark in a corner
C F
I keep what i can of you
G C
Split-second glimpses and snapshots and sounds
F
You in my new order t-shirt
G
Holding a cat and a glass of beer
C F
I flicker through
G
I carry them with me like drugs in a pocket
C F
You in a kentucky aquarium
G
Talking to a shark in a corner