

The National - Quiet Light

```
Learning how not to die inside a little every time
                            tom:
                                                                                      Abm
Intro: B Abm Gb
                                                               I think about you and wonder if you are awake
       B Abm Gb
                                                               And I'm learning to live without the heartache it gives me
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                                  Abm
                                                                                                    Gb
                                                               Nothing I wouldn't do for another few minutes
           Ahm
                                                                                                                 Ahm
 I used to fall asleep to you talking to me
                                                               Learning how not to cry every time there's Another sad unbearable morning
I don't listen to anything now
 Nothing to do with us, I'm just so tired of thinking
                                                               But sometimes there's nothing I can do
About everything
                                                               [Ponte]
          Abm
 I'm not afraid of being alone
                                                                       Dbm
                                                               I can't help it
I just don't know what to do with my time
                                                               It's you that I think I hear in the quiet light
                 Abm
 Between you and me, I thought it would all last
                                                                    Dbm
A little while longer
                                                               Am I crazy?
                                                                  Abm
                                                                                             Gb
                                                               You're nowhere near me, guess I don't know what I'm saying
                                                                                 Abm
                                                                                                      Gb
But I'm learning to lie here in the quiet light
                                                               Just call me, I'll come to where you are alone in the quiet
                  Abm
                                                               light
While I watch the sky go from black to grey
                                                                   Dbm
                                                               I'm always thinking you're behind me
Learning how not to die inside a little every time
                                                                          В
                                                               And I turn around and you're always there
                       Ahm
I think about you and wonder if you are awake
                                                               [Refrão]
[Segunda Parte]
                                                               But I'm learning to lie here in the quiet light
                Abm
                             Gb
 You don't know anything, I think about you way more than
                                                                                  Abm
                                                               While I watch the sky go from black to grey
  I'm not that spiritual I still go out all the time to Learning how not to die inside a little every time
department stores
                                                                                       Ahm
                                                               I think about you and wonder if you are awake
           Abm
  Everything I need, but none of this is getting me anywhere
                                                               And I'm learning to live without the heartache it gives me
                                                                                  Abm
                                                                                                    Gb
 Between you and me I still fall apart at the thought of your Nothing I wouldn't do for another few minutes
voice
[Refrão]
                                                               Learning how not to cry every time there's another sad unbearable morning
                                                                                    Gb
But I'm learning to lie here in the quiet light
                                                               But sometimes there's nothing I can do
                  Abm
While I watch the sky go from black to grey
                                                               [Final] E Dbm Abm Gb
                                                                       E Dbm Abm Gb
Acordes
                   Abn
                                                         Dbn
                                                                 kulele-chords.com
```