```
   Dm                Am                C
Now I'm feeling guilty for it
                 G        Dm
Didn't wanna leave
                      Am            C
I got caught up in the forest
                    G       Dm
Hangin' with the trees
                      Am            C
Realised I'm less important
                     G
Than I thought I'd be
                      Am                    C
I'm not tellin' you for any certain reason but

Dm                Am                C
Now I'm feeling guilty for it
                 G         Dm
Didn't wanna leave
                      Am            C

Hangin' with the trees
                      Am            C
Realised I'm less important

Than I thought I'd be
                      Am                    C
I'm not tellin' you for any certain reason but
                      G
I just want your empathy

( Dm  Am  C  G  Dm )

                    Am                  C
Our lives keep on gettin' shorter
               G        Dm
Losin' opportunity
                      Am                              C
There might be some other ways of looking at it but
                     G     Dm
That's just what I see
                  Am            C
I been gettin' over myself
                           G      Dm
Thinkin' about what you need
              Am                        C
Then I realised that neither of us matter
              G
What's reality, yeah?
