

The Oak - Journey

Tom: G

Up in the hill Dm C
 Under a old hollowed shack Dm C
 Full of dreams and letting go the ill Bb F
 She could feel the call, there's no turning back Gm C A

She went through the light A Eb
 Hoping to see new skylines Gm F Eb
 While the rain flood the night Eb
 She claims towards the sky Gm F

(Eb Gm F)
 (Eb Gm F)

She felt the silver wind lifting leathers Dm C
 Dragging down wine and light waters (increasing waterfalls) Dm C
 Making brighter the shining sky, always warmer Bb F Dm F
 Walking through the moss green Dm C
 She saw brown forms hiding in between (and after all) Dm C
 She was being released of all her sins Bb F Dm C

She went through the light C Eb
 Hoping to see new skylines Gm F
 While the rain flood the night Eb
 She claims towards the sky Gm F

(Eb Gm F)
 (Eb Gm F)

Her heart was beating in different beats Eb Gm F C
 Making her way around the talking trees Eb Gm F C
 What does she seeks? Eb Gm F C Eb Gm F C
 What does she seeks? Eb Gm F C

(Eb Gm F C)
 (Eb Gm F C)
 (Eb Gm F C)
 (Eb Gm F C)

She went through the light C Eb
 Hoping to see new skylines Gm F C
 While the rain flood the night Eb
 She claims towards the sky Gm F C

(Eb Gm F C)
 (Eb Gm F C)

She stood at the huge gate Eb Gm
 The tight opening showed her faith F C
 Within the stars sentinels waits Eb Gm
 What does she paid? F C Eb Gm F C
 What does she faced? Eb Gm F C

Her answer was given C Eb
 While looking back she was feeling Gm F C
 Passing through the gate Eb
 She knelt and claimed Gm
 Towards the night and far away F C Dm

Acordes

