

The Oak - Misunderstood Home

```
Tom: G
                                                          Since I started to stare
                                                                                    the sky from here
                                                          B A B A
Heaven, how can I express
                B Dbm
                                            Ghm
                                                          B A B
I I wish I could hug the world
B Dbm Gbm
                                                          How thankful I am
And give it a lot of love
 Dbm E
                                                             Gbm A Dbm
Oh cold, cold world
        Dbm Gbm Dbm E B
                                                          I might be mistaken in here
I wish I could reach your heart
                                                           B A Gbm
                                                          In all this bipolarity
A B E Dbm
                                                           B A E
I've been in love with this atmosphere

B A B E Dbm B

Since I started to stare the sky from here
                                                          But I'm forced to say
                                                             Gbm A Dbm Gbm
                                                          I'm glad to be in here in all the ways
B A B A
Heaven, how can I express
                                                          (Gbm Dbm B)
B A B E
                                                          A B E Dbm B
I've been in love with this atmosphere
B A B E Dbm B
Since I started to stare the sky from here
How thankful I am
(EB)
Gbm Dbm
                                                          B A B A
Heaven, how can I express
All this sorrow that we have to live with
                                                          B A B E
 Gbm Dbm
                                                          How thankful I am
And tomorrow we are not sure if it can be
Е В
Fix
                                                          ( B Gbm Dbm E B )
Gbm Dbm
All that's left is hope
                                                          So beautiful is this skyline
 Gbm Dbm
In beat the challenges and revive love
                                                          Let us fall and enjoy all our pride
A B E Dbm B
I've been in love with this atmosphere
B A B E Dbm B
                                                          B A B A B E
                                                          Home, Home, Home
Acordes
```

