

The Oak - Mother's Love

Tom: D

m Eb Dm
 There was a family
 So many people, so many thoughts
 The most obsessed by the greediness
 Forgotten by love
 Eb Dm
 There was a mother
 She worked hard to give the best
 So much suffering she had to pass (And at the end) had nothing but selfishness in offer (in offer)

C Dm
 Knives and arrows aimed on the second son
 A flood of fake intentions covering the sun
 So many gifts that no one asked for
 The only things missing were the respect and love

Gm
 Oh the grief
 Am G F
 Never was so full of regrets
 Gm Am G
 They will never be relieved
 F E G A
 Greediness and fake tears on a grave
 (E G A)

Am E G A
 They blind themselves for betraying their beloved mother
 Am E G A Am E
 And, oh the ambition burned their heart
 A Am
 You can blame me I accept, but in the eyes of a child, there is no ill
 E G Am
 And life is not a big deal

C Dm Em

Em E G A Am
 A Dark cloud hangs over your heads
 E G A Am
 God I'm trying not to judge, but is so unfair
 E G A Am
 Brothers fighting for gold and all the filth
 E G A Am
 One day they will breathe their own guilt
 (E G A Am)

E G A Am
 And oh good when this day comes to E G A Am
 Life
 E G A Am E
 They will feel the grief as waves in their
 G A Am
 Eyes
 (E G A Am)

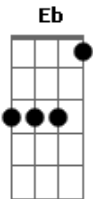

E G A Am
 oh the second son, always did
 The best to please
 God he has always been used, indeed
 By the knife, and by the life

G
 The mother, wherever she is tries to have some relief
 From the struggle
 She deserve this
 E G A A Am
 One day she will smile again in forever peace
 (E G A)
