

The O'Reillys and the Paddyhats - Black Sails

tom:

Intro: Am Em Am C G

The time has come for you to face your darkest fears
Screams of agony are ringing in your ears
Die in a frenzied slaughter on the battlefield
Nowhere for you to hide, tonight your fate is sealed

Out of the darkness, we came
With cannons a?raging and torches aflame
We take your soul and all of your gold
We send your ship down the sea so cold

Yoho, black sails at midnight
Yoho, we?ll get you by daylight
Yoho, black sails at midnight
Black sails and a blast
Black sails and a blast

(Am Em Am C G)

See the cold moonlight reflecting of your blade
So many centuries waiting for the day

Ride across the sea beneath a blackened sail
Knowing that a painful death awaits us, if we fail

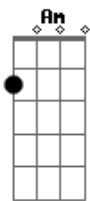

Out of the darkness, we came
With cannons a?raging and torches aflame
We take your soul and all of your gold
We send your ship down the sea so cold

Yoho, black sails at midnight
Yoho, we?ll get you by daylight
Yoho, black sails at midnight
Black sails and a blast
Black sails and a blast

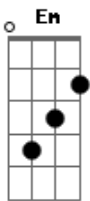

[Solo] Em Am

Yoho, black sails at midnight
Yoho, we?ll get you by daylight
Yoho, black sails at midnight
Black sails and a blast
Black sails and a blast
Black sails and a blast
Black sails and a blast
