Gbm
My sisters and I
A
Have this wish before we die
Gbm
And it may sound strange

As if our minds are deranged
Gbm
Please don't ask us why
Beneath the sheltering sky
Gbm
We have this strange obsession
You have the means in your possession

With a joy you could not measure
Gbm
They would wait for him here
The same place every year
Gbm
Beneath the sheltering sky
Across the desert he would fly

The sky turned to black
Would he ever come back?
They would climb a high dune
They would pray to the moon
But he'd never return
So the sisters would burn
As their eyes searched the land
With their cups full of sand
