The Pretty Reckless - Back To The River

Tom: G

Е D There's blue skies all around me And the world looks just the same D E It's hard to be criminal С F when you all know my name D Sometimes I wonder C F Sometimes I wanna be free D Well, you can be king of me G С And I'll be the queen D No one listens to me E The words I have to say Е There ain't no doubt about it F I'm just trying to get away D I'm going back to the river Where no one will find me D We're going back to the river E Back to the sea D

When I was just a baby C E My mama taught me E D "Girl, you best believe in Jesus C E If you'll make it in the world"

Acordes

I'm going back to the river Where no one knows my name D I'm going back to the river Е Back to the Seine Here we go D F There's blue skies all around me And the world looks just the same D It's hard to be criminal F When they all know your name D Sometimes I wonder F Sometimes I wanna be free D Well, you can be king of me G And I'll be the queen

E D No one listens to me C E The words I have to say E D There ain't no doubt about it C E I'm just fading into gray E D I'm going back to the river C E Where the devil can't find me E D I'm going back to the river C E Back to the sea