The Pretty Reckless - Light Me Up

```
Tom: G
                                                                There's plenty of light to go around (one line to long)
                                                                                  Eb
                                                                                                   Bb
                                                                Ab
   (Bb Bb Bb)
                                                                Do you think its right when you hit me to the ground?
Does what I'm wearing seems to shock you?
                                                                     Ab
                                                                               Eb
                                                                                             Bb
                                                                Well, light me up when I'm down
Well that's okay, 'cause what I'm thinking about you is not
                                                                Ab
                                                                          Eb
                                                                                         Bb
                                                                  Light me up when I'm down
okay
Got it on my mind to change my ways
                                                                 (Bb Bb Bb)
                                                                Does what I'm taking seem to bother you
But I don't think I can be anything other than me well that's okay 'cause I can take it all without you and I'm
I don't think I can be anything other than me
                                                                okay
                                                                Got it on my mind to change my ways
Ab
             Eb
Do you have a light?
                                                                But I don't think I can be anything other than me
         Bb
Can you make me feel alright?
Ab
                    Eb
                                  Bb
                                                                I don't think I can be anything other than me
There's plenty of light to go around (one line to long)
Ab
                 Eb
                                  Bb
                                                                Ab
                                                                             Fb
Do you think its right when you hit me to the ground?
                                                                Do you have a light?
    Ab
              Eb
                             Bb
                                                                         Bb
Well, light me up when I'm down
                                                                Can you make me feel alright?
           Eb
                                                                                                   Bb
Ab
                        Bb
                                                                Ab
                                                                                     Eb
                                                                There's plenty of light to go around (one line to long)
 Light me up when I'm down
                                                                                  Fb
                                                                Ab
                                                                                                   Bb
(Bb Bb Bb)
                                                                Do you think its right when you hit me to the ground?
Does what I'm saying seems to haunt you?
                                                                     Ab
                                                                               Eb
                                                                                              Bb
                                                                Well, light me up when I'm down
Well that's okay, 'cause what I'm saying about you is not okay Ab
                                                                           Eb
                                                                                         Bb
                                                                  Light me up when I'm down
Got it on my mind to change my ways
                                                                Ab
                                                                           Eb
                                                                                         Bb
                                                                  Light me up when I'm down
But I don't think I can be anything other than me
                                                                Ab
                                                                           Eb
                                                                                          Bb
                                                                  Light me up when I'm down
I don't think I can be anything other than me
                                                                Ab
                                                                           Fb
                                                                                         Bb
                                                                  Light me up when I'm down
Ab
             Eb
Do you have a light?
                                                                           Eb
                                                                                          Bb
                                                                Ab
                                                                  Light me up when I'm down
         Bb
Can you make me feel alright?
                                                                Ab
                                                                           Fb
                                                                                          Bb
Ab
                    Fb
                                  Bb
                                                                  Light me up when I'm down
```

Acordes

