

The Rasmus - Paradise

```
Tom: Bb
                                                                I'll be gone in a minute
                                                                                                  Eb F
  Db
                                                                I'm not afraid to admit it
I'm dead but i'm living
                                                                So wrong but i love it
                                       Eb
I Play the part i've been given
Still kicked outta heaven
                                                                So tired i was trying to find a better way but every day's the I'm into nothing new
                                                                same
Every day is a battle
                                    Eb
                                                                I'm trying to break the numbness and it's driving me insane
I made a deal with the devil
                                                                Db
And now i'm deep into trouble
                                                                Fh
                 Eb
                                                                You could be my savior you could be just what i need
So tired i was trying to find a better way but every day's the So i lay down and pray for someting better
same
                                                                Go ahead and leave me paralyzed
Eb
                                                                There's nothing left to sacrifice
I'm trying to break the numbness and it's driving me insane
                                                                In hell i'm shooting paradise
                                                                i'm ready so i'll close my eyes
Fh
You could be my savior you could be just what i need
                                                                                               Dh
                                                                                                          Eb F
                                                                This is my paradise
So i lay down and pray for someting better
                                                                                                      Eb F
                                                                                                                           Eb
                                                                                           Dh
                                                                This is my paradise
Go ahead and leave me paralyzed
There's nothing left to sacrifice
                                                                (2x)
In hell i'm shooting paradise
i'm ready so i'll close my eyes
                                                                I made a deal with the devil
                                         Fb F
                                                                Every day is a battle
This is my paradise
                                                                Every day is a battle
                          Db
                                     Eb F
                                                                                           Db
This is my paradise
                                                                This is my paradise
                                                                                             F
It's gonna hurt but i'm ready
                                                                This is my paradise
                                      Eb F
                                                                                           Eb
                                                                                              Db
It's clear where i'm heading
                                                                This is my paradise
Don't call paramedics
                        Eb Db
                                                                This is my paradise
I'm into nothing new
```

Acordes

