

The Rolling Stones - Child Of The Moon

Tom: D

The wind <sup>D</sup> blows <sup>G</sup> rain into my <sup>D</sup> face

The sun <sup>G</sup> glows at the end of the highway

Child of the moon, rub your <sup>A</sup> rainy eyes

Oh, child of the moon

She <sup>G</sup> shivers, by the light she is hidden

She flickers like a lamp lady <sup>D</sup> vision

Child of the moon, rub your rainy eyes

Child of the moon

The first car on the foggy road riding

The last star for my lady is pining

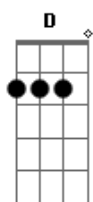

Oh, child of the moon, bid the sun arise
