

The Rolling Stones - Cry To Me

Tom: D

When your <sup>D</sup> baby leaves you all alone,
<sup>G</sup> And nobody calls you on the phone.
<sup>A</sup> Ah, don't you feel like crying?

When you're <sup>D</sup> all alone in your lonely room,
<sup>G</sup> And there's nothing but the smell of her perfume.
<sup>A</sup> Ah, don't you feel like crying?

Come on, baby, come on...cry to me.

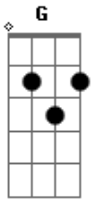

(refrão)
<sup>G</sup> You don't ever, you don't ever have to walk <sup>D</sup> alone, you see.
<sup>A</sup> So, come on, take my hand..Come on, walk with <sup>D</sup> me.

When you're <sup>D</sup> waiting for a voice to come, in the night,
<sup>G</sup> and there is no one..
