

The Rolling Stones - Hoo Doo Blues

Tom: D
Intro: D

Now, when your woman actin' funny, and begin to run around

You better get you somebody, put you down

Better let her go, just as quick as you can

You know that hoodoo girl, she a hoodoo the hoodoo man

You know my woman got me on a wonder at somethin' I can't understand

Now I look at her runnin' with some other man

After all I did, everything in this world I can

[Chorus]

You know that hoodoo girl, she a hoodoo the hoodoo man

[Solo]: D

She take all my money and spend it all over town when I want to love her, man, she ain't can be found

I walk and cry, dryin' tears away with my hand

You know that hoodoo girl, she a hoodoo the hoodoo man
