

The Rolling Stones - It Wong Take Long

Tom: D

(intro/riff) G A G B

G A B
And it won't take long to forget you
(riff)
Time it passes fast
G A B
It'll all be over in a minute
(riff)
You'll be in the past

G A B
You can lose the love of a lifetime
(riff)
In a single roll
G A B
You can gain a fortune in an instant
(riff)
Or you can lose your soul

E A B
And it won't take long to forget you
E A B
You know i'm never wrong
E A B
It'll all be over in a minute
E A B
And it won't take long

(intro)

G A B
And it won't take long to forgive you
(riff)
But it's hard to forget
G A B

'cause it seems like it's yesterday
(riff)
The day that we first met

G A B
When you give me a smouldering look and
(riff)
Put out your cigarette
G A B
And i saw you (...)
(riff)
You wore a pale blue dress

E A B
And it won't take long to forget you
E A B
You know i'm never wrong
E A B
It'll all be over in a minute
E A B
And it won't take long

E A B
Life is short, one look and it's over
E A B
Comes as quite a shock
E A B
All i got is some memories
E A B
Stuck in an old shoebox

E A B
And it won't take long to forget you
E A B
You know i'm never wrong
E A B
It'll all be over by christmas
E A B
No, it won't take long
It won't take long
