

The Rolling Stones - Tops

```
Intro: (Cm Dm Cm Dm Cm Dm Cm )
                                             \mathsf{Cm}
 Bb Cm
      Hey baby, every man is the same come on I'll make you a I'll take you a million miles from all this Put you on pedestal, come on, come on
      Have you ever heard those opening line
                                       Ēb
      You should leave this small town way behind
      I'll be your partner, show you the steps
      Whit me behind your tasting of the sweet wine of Bb
success
                                                                baby
     Bb
       Cause I'll take you to the top
      Hey baby, I'll take you to the top
                      Eb
       Step on ladder, toe in the pool
                                                      Bb
```

Acordes

