

The Silent Comedy - Gasoline

Tom: Bb

(forma dos acordes no tom de A)

Capostrate na 1ª casa

Intro: D G G D

D
We were walking in a circle, hand in hand
G D
And your feet were sinking deeper in the sand than mine
D
You had sold me the mansion in your head

G
I would cut your hair and you would dye it red as fire
D
As a crackling fire

G D
And I would hold the phone
G D
So you were not alone
G D A
I had to take you home, you couldn't even drive

D
You had smiled when you told me you were brave
G D
And that your life was in other hands to save, not mine
D
I saw the mansion you had made me love ignite
G
And as you were fading, it was growing bright with fire
D
With a crackling fire

G D
And when you tried to stand
D D
You had to take my hand
G D A
You said "I think your plan will be splitting from mine"

D
We made a pile of all your remaining clothes

G D

Where you're heading now you won't be needing those, it's fine
D

We soaked the pile till it dripped with gasoline

G
And then I lit a match as if I'd never seen a fire, fire, fire
D

It was a big roaring fire
G D
And your heart beat failed
G D
And it stopped leaving its trails

G D A
But the last thing you exhaled while you were alive was

G
I am alright

D
I am alright

G
I am alright

D
I am alright

G
I am alright

D
I am alright

A
And I'm doing just fine

G
I am alright

D
I am alright

G
I am alright

D
I am alright

G
I am alright

D
I am alright

A
And I'm doing just fine

G
Yeah
