

The Smiths - Unhappy Birthday

Tom: G

I've come to wish you an unhappy birthday
I've come to wish you an unhappy birthday
because you're evil and you lie and if you should die
I may feel slightly sad but I won't cry

Loved and lost and some may say when usually it's nothing surley you're happy it should be this way?
I say "No, Im gonna kill my dog" and "May the lines sag, the lines sag heavy and deep tonight"

I've come to wish you an unhappy birthday
I've come to wish you an unhappy birthday
because you're evil and you lie and if you should die
I may feel slightly sad but I won't cry
Loved and lost and some may say
when usually it's nothing surley you're happy it should be this way?
I said "no" and then I shot myself so, drink, drink, drink and be ill tonight
from the one you left behind from the one you left behind
