

The Smiths - Unlovable

Intro: D, C, G, A (twice)
                                                        black is how i feel on the inside.
I know I'm unloveable,
                                                        I wear black on the outside, because
you don't have to tell me,
                                                        black is how i feel on the inside.
I don't have much in my life,
          D C G
                                                        And if i seem a little strange,
but take it it's yours..
                                                        well that's because i am.
I don't have much in my life,
                                                                            D C G A
                                                        And if i seem a little strange, well
but take it it's yours.

                                                        that's because I am.
I know I'm unloveable,
                                                                       D C G A
           G
                                                        I know that you would like me,
You don't have to tell me,
C G
                                                        if only you could see me,
for message received loud and clear, loud and clear,
            G
                                                        If only you would meet me.
message received...

                                                        I don't have much in my life,
                                                                   С
I don't have much in my life,
                                                        but take it it's yours...
                                                                       D C G A
but take it it's yours.
                                                        I don't have much in my life,

                    CG
                                                        but take it it's yours
                           Α
                                                                       D C G A (repeat from , then continue on)
                                                        F#m, G, Em, Bm G A-A(and on and on....)
                                                        the end
