

The Story So Far - Clairvoyant

Tom: G
Intro:

[Verse]

G
I think you'll notice when things become different
C
The good vibes in our lives won't feel so consistent
G
And less becomes more cause the weight is too heavy
C
I swim in the water that's breaking your levee

[Chorus]

Em D C G
The way that you left me is alright, it's alright
Em D C G
If I argue the point then we yell and we fight
Em D C G
And I won't be home for the rest of the night
Em D C G
You might hate my words but you know that I'm right
Em D C G
You know that I'm right

[Verse]

G
This is your life, there's no way to run from it
C
The doubt in your brain or the pain in your stomach
G
I only have but one complaint at the moment
C
Don't paint me black when I used to be golden

[Chorus]

Em D C G
The way that you left me is alright, it's alright
Em D C G
If I argue the point then we yell and we fight
Em D C G
And I won't be home for the rest of the night
Em D C G
You might hate my words but you know that I'm right
Em D C G
You know that I'm right

Don't paint me black when I used to be golden
