

The Strokes - The Adults Are Talking

```
For the elevator
                            tom:
                                                                You were sayin'
Intro: Gm C F Bb
Gm C F
                                                               All the things I'm dreaming
[Primeira Parte]
                                                               No more askin'
                                                               Questions or excuses
They've been saying
                                                                Information's here
"You?re sophisticated"
                                                               Here and everywhere
       F
They're complaining
                                                                [Refrão]
      Dm
Overeducated
                                                               Don?t go there 'cause you'll never return
      F
You are saying
                                                                I know you think of me when you think of her
All the words I'm dreaming
                                                                But then it don't make sense when you're trying hard
Sav it after me
                                                                To do the right thing but without recompense
Say it after me
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                And then you did something wrong and you said it was great
                                                               And now you don't know how you could ever complain
They will blame us
           Dm
                                                                Because you're all confused 'cause you want me to Crucify and shame us
                                                                            Bb
                                                                But then you want me to do the same as you
We can?t help it
If we are a problem
                                                               I don't want anything
     F
We are trying
                                                                 I know it's not
                                                                It's not your fault
Hard to get your attention
I'm climbing up your wall
                                                                I don't want anyone
                                                                F Bb
Climbing up your wall
                                                                 As I do in life for [Refrão]
                                                               You
                                                                   C F Bb
Don?t go there 'cause you'll never return
                                                               Ahh
                                                                         oooh
                                                                ( Gm C F Bb )
( Gm C F Bb )
I know you think of me when you think of her
But then it don't make sense when you're trying hard
                                                                Gm C F
To do the right thing but without recompense
                                                                      Stockholders
And then you did something wrong and you said it was great
                                                               Same shit different life
          C
And now you don't know how you could ever complain
                                                                I?ll get it right some time
Because you're all confused 'cause you want me to
                                                               Maybe not tonight
            Bb
But then you want me to do the same as you
(FDmFDm)
(FDmC)
                                                               Maybe not tonight
                                                               Maybe not tonight
[Terceira Parte]
                                                               Maybe not tonight
You were waitin'
                                                               Maybe not tonight
                                                                [Final] Gm C F
```

Acordes

