

The Swell Season - All The Way Down

Tom: D

You have broken me all the way down
 Down upon my knees
 And you have broken me all the way now
 You'll be the last you see

And some fight you gave when I pushed you away from me
 And in the morning when you're turning, I'll be far to sea
 You'll be the last you see

You have broken me all the way down
 You'll be the last you see

And what chance had we got when you missed every shot for me
 And in the morning when you're turning, I'll be out of reach
 And in the darkness when you find this, I'll be far to sea

And You have broken me all the way down
 You'll be the last you see
