

The Teskey Brothers - So Caught Up

Tom: G

Intro: Em Bm A
Em Bm A

I'm so caught up
I'm so caught up on you
I'm so caught up
I'm so caught up on you
Even if I tried to change it I can't
My memory's caught on you
Even if I try to think of something new I can't They're all of you
I'm denying the feeling of my mind
The feeling of change
There's only one thing I can be certain
It's true
I'm still caught on you
I'm so caught up
I'm so caught up on you

I'm so caught up
I'm so caught up on you
(Em Bm A Em Bm A G)
Every time I try to shake it I can't
It's impossible to do
Even if I try to break it no I can't
A broken memory of you
I've been to 200 hundred cities and not known where I am
I've walked in the same direction again and again
Oh baby, you making me crazy
You are always on my mind
You are always on my mind
yeah
I'm so caught up
I'm so caught up on you
I'm so caught up
I'm so caught up on you
