And I need fire, so I can burn Telling me to not get hurt, telling me but I won't learn 'Cause I want you and nothing can stop this And as it ends up in ashes, we sit and laugh, yeah

When the world gets quiet, I'll scream your name When your lungs get tired, the air will breath the same Don't forget me, let me ease your pain And every heart in breaking, don't let it slip away Telling me to not get hurt, telling me but I won't learn 'Cause I want you and nothing can stop this And as it ends up in ashes, we sit and laugh, yeah 'Cause I want you and nothing can stop this And as it ends up in ashes, we sit and laugh, yeah Gbm F We sit and watch this burn
