                                                             But she's not into guys
                                                                Abm
                                                             Oh, why? Tell me why
let's go move into my apartment (one day)
                                                             Did I fall for those eyes?
One look at her my heart was stopping (heartbreak)
                                                             She said I was nice
I did whatever she was asking
\begin{tabular}{lll} E & & B \\ She said & "maybe later catch you in the elevator" \\ \end{tabular}
                                                             But she's not into guys
                                                             I found a girl
                                                             Oh, oh oh oh, Oh, oh oh oh, Oh, oh oh oh, oh (I found a girl)
A couple days we got to hanging (real close)
Since now she wasn't even taken (no no)
                                                             Oh, oh oh oh, Oh, oh oh oh, Oh, oh oh oh, oh
I made a move she said "baby you're mistaken, I'm not into
                                                             I can't believe I met somebody like you
                                                             And now I feel like I'm fooled
She got that smile and that body is to die for
                                                                       E B
                                                             And that to me is so cruel
One of a kind and that's why it makes me cry
                                                             Abm B
                                                             I can't believe it I just think like a man

E

B
Cause I found a girl
                                                             That you just wanted me bad
Who's in love with a girl
                                                             But you had different plans
She said that she tried
                                                             Cause I found a girl
   E B
But she's not into guys
                                                             Who's in love with a girl
 Abm B
Oh, why? Tell me why
                                                             She said that she tried
Did I fall for those eyes?
                                                               E B
                                                             But she's not into guys
She said I was nice
                                                              Abm B
                                                             Oh, why? Tell me why
But she's not into guys
                                                             Did I fall for those eyes?
I found a girl
                                                              Abm B
                                                             She said I was nice
I should've known to walk away then
                                                             But she's not into guys
I should've left that alone
                                                             I found a girl
But why'd you call me on the phone we'll be hanging again
                                                                  Abm
                                                             Cause I found a girl
Under the premise of friends
                                                             Who's in love with a girl
But now she only talks to me about some other woman she says
                                                              Abm B
                                                             She said that she tried
                                                             But she's not into guys
She got that smile and that body is to die for
                                                                Abm B
                                                             Oh, why? Tell me why
One of a kind and that's why it makes me cry
                                                             Did I fall for those eyes?
Cause I found a girl
                                                             She said I was nice
Who's in love with a girl
                                                             But she's not into guys
She said that she tried
                                                             I found a girl
