

The Vamps - Kiss

Tom: G

Oh no, I can taste your poison
 Lingering just where you left it
 And oh no, just want you in my sheets
 And I don't care quite how I get it
 Even if you're drunk, darling
 Baby, I don't mind long as I'm on your conscience
 Oh no, now I can't taste your poison, and I miss it
 Sweet like sugar on my lips
 So addictive, just one hit
 Sweet like sugar on my lips
 Can you call me back again?
 'Cause I need your kiss
 Can you call me back again?
 'Cause I need your kiss
 Oh no, try my best to not catch feelings
 But with you, I'm helpless
 And it's so could, when you're gone
 The flame dies out and smoke fills the emptiness

Yeah, you know I'm drunk, darling
 But I hope you don't mind, in your voice I hear smiling
 Oh no, tried your best to not catch feelings
 But with me you're helpless
 Sweet like sugar on my lips
 So addictive, just one hit
 Sweet like sugar on my lips
 Can you call me back again?
 'Cause I need your kiss
 Can you call me back again?
 'Cause I need your kiss

 Can you call me back again?
 'Cause I need your
 Sweet like sugar on my lips

 Can you call me back again?
 'Cause I need your kiss
