 Gbm A E

When I break into your heart
 I hope I find the place I need
 The light that shines along inside
 Will let me put the seed
 It's something that I know
 With warm love will grow inside of you
 ( A E Gbm )
 ( A E )

In the deepest nights in dark
 Your crying heart will never rain
 The walk of love is all about
 The pride feeling no pain
 Crying all night long
 My mind shivers along
 And I'm gone

In my mind I supposed it was
 A waiting game but the needs
 Made it hard to keep up the pace
 Will cross the line and
 No one knows the time

We just have to wait

( A E Gbm )
 ( A E )

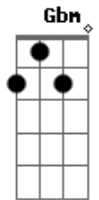

She's a silver tear a lower light
 That shines up in my eyes
 Worrying up all day along
 Just makes me wanna cry
 The rain and the snow
 Flowers turn to stone
 And what's wrong

In my mind I supposed it was
 A waiting game but the needs
 Made it hard to keep up the pace
 Will cross the line and
 No one knows the time
 We just have to wait
 Oo oohoho oohoho
 Oo oohoho hoho

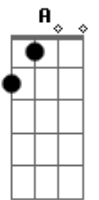

In my mind I supposed it was
 A waiting game but the needs
 Made it hard to keep up the pace
 Will cross the line and
 No one knows the time
 We just have to wait

[Final] Gbm
